Capital H Group Hires Detroit Managing Director

Chicago, Illinois – February 21, 2004 – Capital H Group, a rapidly growing human capital consulting firm, is continuing to build its presence in the Detroit market by adding yet another high level, experienced professional to its growing roster of executives from both top firms and industry.

Sherry Borchelt, formerly Vice President of Staffing and Recruiting Solutions at Pomeroy IT Solutions, has joined Capital H Group as Managing Director of the Detroit office. Borchelt also assumes responsibilities for sales for the company as its first Vice President of Sales. With over 20 years of professional services experience in senior management roles, Borchelt will lead a team of over 20 human resources and business consulting professionals based in the Detroit office as well as the sales function for all four Capital H Group offices.

According to Borchelt, “I am enthusiastic about this role. The success we have experienced in the marketplace and the caliber of people we have been able to attract in the first year of our operations in the Detroit is remarkable. As we continue to expand our presence here, we’ll be able to further broaden the expertise we provide to our clients.”

Prior to joining Pomeroy, Borchelt held sales and operations management roles at Alternative Resources Corporation and Parson Consulting.
