Miller Brewing Company Selects Capital H Group for Recruiting

Milwaukee, Wisconsin – December 14, 2004 – Capital H Group, a human capital consulting firm, has been selected by Miller Brewing Company, the second largest brewery in the United States, to manage a significant part of a critical strategic recruiting project. The project will enable Miller to hire from a pool of eligible candidates as the brewer responds to future talent needs.

“We chose Capital H Group for this project because of their proven processes and their understanding of our culture, mission and business,” said David Gunn, Career Development Manager for Miller.

“Many of our clients come to us, as Miller did, because they are looking for a flexible and pragmatic response to their talent management needs. In Miller’s case, we are assisting with a recruiting process that will yield a pre-qualified, national pool of several thousand candidates for several of their functions,” said Jill Zoromski, Managing Director of Capital H Group’s Milwaukee Office.
